DEAR FRIENDS

2017 was a year of meaningful awards in the communities that we serve! The Franklin P. and Arthur W. Perdue Foundation demonstrated its ability to respond quickly in times of critical need during these past twelve months. At the same time, we invested in numerous projects that will have a long-term impact on the growth and development of many institutions. I would say 2017 was a year when Perdue and the Perdue Family were able to demonstrate true philanthropic spirit in the places we call home!

With 194 grants awarded totaling $2,367,948, our grants demonstrated our belief in responsible food and agriculture and being socially aware of the needs of our neighbors. Some awards and activities worthy of highlight were:

• A $30,000 grant was awarded to the Ward Foundation to enhance its Living Classroom and environmental education programs at the Ward Museum of Waterfowl Art. The K–12 initiatives they craft to educate the next stewards of our natural world are hands-on, exciting and impressive. The future looks bright thanks to programs like these.

• The roots of the Franklin P. and Arthur W. Perdue Foundation run deep in funding libraries in the regions we call home. This year we invested in the construction of both the Berlin Branch of the Worcester County Library in Maryland and the Eastern Shore Public Library in Virginia to continue this legacy. Mr. Arthur would be so proud!

• At Perdue, we believe that in a world as rich in resources as ours no one should go hungry. With grants to twelve feeding programs in 2017, we believe we made a difference in our communities to help our neighbors assure a healthy meal for their families.

• Natural disasters affected many of the communities that Perdue calls home in 2017. Through donations to organizations like the American Red Cross, we helped address the needs of our friends in California that were devastated by wildfires as well as the numerous areas affected by hurricanes this year.

• Caregivers are true heroes. The Perdue Family Council recognized the efforts of those who care for our wounded military service personnel by making a grant to The Pillars of Strength Scholarship at University of Maryland University College. These scholarships will make the dream of a college education a reality for these special people who have always put others before themselves.

In the following pages, we celebrate the impact of The Franklin P. and Arthur W. Perdue Foundation in 2017. These generous efforts are due to the philanthropic spirit of our founders, Arthur and Frank Perdue, and the stewardship of the Foundation’s Board of Directors and Committee Members as well as the Perdue Family. I hope you enjoy this year in review.
